What to write about?

Are you struggling with putting up that letter?
How about thinking about these questions:

What did you learn from the Covid-19 crisis?

What has changed that you hope will continue?

Or what do you want to share with the future Switzerland?

By submitting your letter per email or mail you consent to having your letter published online and considered for the book. Name and other additional information provided will also be published (e.g. age, Canton of origin)
